

“No matter how young or youthful the heir is, he is the one who will supervise and control. Likewise, when the inheritance is passed on, it does not matter who is better or worse. When Father hands down this authority in the future, even if that heir is crippled, people must receive the Blessing from that person. That time will come.”

Blessing and Ideal Family I Chapter 4 titled: The process of the Blessing under the selection of the spouse and who determines the spouse

“After that registration is done, True Father will appoint his successor. That successor must be known to all the Unification Church, all the blessed couples and the True Parents' family. They must all unanimously accept him.”

The REVELATION of Mrs. Gil Sa Ja Eu

As many of you know, Mrs. Gil Sa Ja Eu has been touring the country as Family Federation's representative to persuade members to continue to support Mother's leadership and her “wonderful, perfect power,” as Mrs. Eu describes it. In her talks around the country she has stated her support for Mother changing whatever she wants to in the Cheon Syeong Gyeong since she and Father are “equal.” I see a problem with having two “equal” subjects, rather than “subject-object,” but that is a discussion for another day.

What I found most interesting in her talk was the way she described Father's and Mother's attitudes towards Hyung Jin Nim. Here is a two minute and twenty second selection from her talk in Minneapolis on December 9, 2015. The first 72 seconds are Mrs. Eu's words in Japanese. The rest is the English translation.

Mrs. Eu re Hyung Jin Nim- Minneapolis, 12-9-2015

In this segment Mrs. Eu describes how Father was supporting Hyung Jin Nim's actions as the leader of the Korean Church, but Mother was listening to the criticism of his “Buddhist” practices. Father believed in him, but Mother did not. Mrs. Eu says, “Father embraced Hyung Jin Nim, but Mother was different. Mother said, ‘No.’ “

I have confirmed with brothers and sisters that Mrs. Eu made the same statement during her talks in other states about Mother not agreeing with Father's view of Hyung Jin Nim.

This is incredibly revealing. Mother's rejection of Hyung Jin Nim was evident to Mrs.

Eu and others long before Mother fired him, after Father's Seonghwa, from his positions as Korean church president and other responsibilities. Her disapproval of her youngest son was taking place AT THE VERY SAME TIME that Father insisted that Hyung Jin Nim and his wife be crowned as his heir and successor

"Father embraced Hyung Jin Nim, but Mother was different.
Mother said, 'No.' "

in 2008 and 2009, with a written proclamation that anyone opposing this appointment was a "heretic and destroyer" in 2010, and further statements by Father reaffirming this selection in 2011 and 2012.

Within weeks of Father's passing, Mother fired Hyung Jin Nim from all of his positions in Korea, but her opposition started long before. To put it simply, according to Mrs. Eu, Mother was NOT united with Father's selection of Hyung Jin Nim as his heir and successor going back MANY YEARS.

Mrs. Eu's testimony CONFIRMS Yeonah Nim's testimony which describes Mother's growing estrangement from Father which began to manifest in public around the time of the opening of the Cheongpyeong palace in 2006.

A Korean sister who was serving in the Hannam-dong residence of True Parents in Seoul was in tears when she saw portraits of True Parents being taken down after Father's Seonghwa and replaced with solo portraits of Mother by herself.

Family Federation's theologians tell us we must believe that True Parents are absolutely "one." What happens when there is clear testimony from a respected elder who attended True Parents from the earliest days and who was married to the church president, that this was not the case? What do you do when the facts conflict with your deepest hopes and beliefs? Do you close your lying eyes and ears or open them and deal with the painful truth?
